Howdy neighbors,

OK, here we go. Heavy rains coming and possibly a lot of wind.

Please make sure your outdoor drains around your property are clear of debris. Pick up any items that might float into drains and clog them. Our drainage system works very well, but only when it's clear to flow.

Rising water will usually recede as fast as it rises, unless the drain is clogged, so please keep 'em clean.

Self-draining pools will be fine, but if you have to manually drain, might want to lower it a bit just to be safe.

Rain should be gone by tomorrow evening according to reports.

OK, stay safe.

Jim Pappas, Mayor
