HELLO SPORTSFANS!

Hard to believe but Summer's over....back to school...yuck. Man, that was fast.

Good news, football season is about to start! No more faking interest in soccer and the WNBA.....(I'm kidding, save your comments!)

Not much to report here as thankfully, it's been a quiet summer.

-Drunk bumper cars continue on Voss road with another of our barricades getting wiped out over the weekend. The driver ran (stumbled) away but was caught, now trying to get insurance to pay for repairs.

-Esplanades on North Voss are finishing this week and look great.

-Flashing pole sign in front of school (another drunk driver victim) is on back order and will be installed in the coming weeks. Trying to collect on their insurance as well.

-Road replacement starts in a couple of weeks on Caruthers, Fleetway, and Teakwood. Ribbon curb like we did on Lindenwood, will look Awesome!

-Scheduling another LTC handgun course for early fall. Will send a separate notice to sign up.

Remember, school starts this Thursday, so please drive carefully as lots of walkers and bikers will be heading back to school, and traffic will be a mess for a few days.

OK, that's all I got. Savor what's left of Summer!
